The big football elevens had their hands full this afternoon, Yale and Harvard being the only ones to escape a beating, and then only by the narrowest of margins-

Columbia lost to Amherst. This was a big surprise to the focal team. which expected to have no trouble in beating the visitors. The Blue and White were unable to get a man over Amherst's line, and the final score was 12 to 0.

Princeton, after a hard fight, lost to the middles at Annapolis, and the army up at West Point trimmed Harvard.

It was a day of surprises. The most interesting and exciting game s that between Amnapolis and Princeton. The middles have never beaten one of the big teams before and were not looked upon as having a chance in the game to-day. They contested every inch of the way, however, and at the end had one point to the good, the final score being 10 to 9. The navy now looks forward to the coming game with West Point, and has high hopes of downing the

In the second half of the game with Syracuse Yale put in almost an entire substitute team, and the boys from up the State gave the Blue a shock and pushed them hard at the finish, the final score being 17 to 9, in Yale's favor.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 15 .- The silence of the Russiansauthoritles at this critical hour is heart-breaking for the public. Not a single end My official word has been given out to relieve the suspense and anxiety for 947 over twenty-four hours, and the public is convinced that it can only mean that Gen. Kuropatkin's world-proclaimed advance has ended in complete (NTS) The Rag'd Cavaller F disaster, with such frightful losses that they will stagger Russia even

Most oircumstantial stories, attributed to court circles, are told of the failure of the Russian left, from where Kuropatkin aimed his chief blow. The Russian commander is stated to have had two and a half army corps there with one and a half corps in reserve, and they are said to have been beaten and thrown into a state of confusion bordering on a rout, it being now only question of the magnitude of the defeat.

According to these stories Kuropatkin was really feinting on his front, having only three corps, with one General, in reserve along the whole centre

The Japanese turning movement westward, which the General Staff had repeatedly declined to consider dangerous, is also said to be developing force and strength enough to be a real threat against the Russian, comnunications in the rear.

STORM OF PROTEST AROUSED BY TACTICS OF MORGAN MEN.

Hundreds of Thousands of Challenges for Democratic Voters in Palpable Effort to Keep Down the Registration in This City -Tammany to Prevent Intimidation.

Richard Van Cott, son of the Postmaster of this city, and Bankson McAvoy, a cashier in the Post-Office, were arrested this afternoon for colonizing in the Fifth Assembly District. The prisoners were taken to the residence of Justice Wyatt, of the Court of Special Sessions, at No. 28 East Thirtieth street, where bond was given for both.

Colonizing is a felony. The evidence against Van Cott was given by men who swear that they were hired by him to plant floaters in boarding-houses in the district.

The chief witness against Van Cott in a sworn confession says that he engage! to place seventy-five iilegal voters. The testimony alleges that Van Cott had rooms rented all over the district.

State Superintendent of Elections Morgan claims the credit for the arrest, but it appears that the evidence was gathered by the Attorneys General office, with the aid of Pinkerton detectives and the local police.

The investigation began some time ago. Yesterday seven men were arrested and sent to the House of Detention. Five of them turned State's evidence. Besides their testimony there is a mass of corroboration.

FIRST RACE-Jim Beattle (7 to JUSTICE WYATT ISSUED WARRANTS.

Sessions, sitting as a committing Magistrate. Deputy Attorney-Ge Cornelius Collins looked after the case for the people. Mr. Morgan's office was represented by a lawyer named Emil Fuchs.

There was a swarm of witnesses, men, women and children, in Je Wyatt's chambers, but the Court concluded that he had sufficient evid after he had heard the testimony of five. He signed the warrants, which were given to Detective-Sergts. Day and Coyle and William P. Besant, E detective attached to the office of the Attorney-General.

Joy reigned in Tammany Hall when news reached there that Van Cott was the subject of a warrant of arrest. The Tammany leaders have been claiming all along that there is a scheme of Republican colonization on in this city. They say that the arrest of the son of the Postuster will prove it. The chief evidence against Van Cott is in a full confession signed by Benjamin Levy, who acted as one of Van Cott's agents. Ralph Jones, of No. 19 Greenwich street, testified to meeting Van Cott and Levy on the night of Oct. 6 at the Lincoln Club and talking over colonization ple with them. Other witnesses testified to receiving money from Levy and McAvoy. Jones is a clerk in the office of the Superintendent of Mails in the Post-Office.

DEMOCRATIC MANAGERS AROUSED.

That the registration question and the tactics of Supt. Morgan have aroused the Democratic managers was shown to-day when August Bel and National Chairman Thomas Taggart called on Charles F. Murphy at start, for Artful was in superb form, Tammany to talk over the local situation. Mr. Taggart and Mr. Belmont have been informed that the 250,000 challenges are part of a scheme to cut

The talent received a facer in the opening event. Lady Henrietta, the sensational 160 to 1 winner of a few days ago. was installed an even money favorite. In her last race she simply breezed away from Campo, who is a very fast two-year-old for a short distance. Lady Henrietta had no speed, however, to-day and finished outside the money. Jim Beattle made all the running and won easily by two lengths from The Claimant.

Artful Hangs Up Record.

Artful as the favorite in the Whit Plains Dandellon was second choice and Glorifier the third choice. They ran as the prices indicated. Dandellon went to the front at the start and made the running, followed by Artful and Gunfire. These thre had the race between them. Artful simply waited on Dandellon to the last furlong, and then came away, winning easily by a length and a half without an effort in the fastest time that six furlongs has ever been covered in. Dandellon held on to second place to the end, beating Glorifier a nose.

Darkle Led All the Way. Darkle went to the front soon after the start, made all the running and win in a drive by a length from Bill Balley II., who was second all the way. Ox-ford, served up as a 6-to-6 favorite in Short Hose Wins Long Race.

Ostrich, the outsider, went to the front and soon opened up a gap of ten lengths on Gunfire, who laid just in front of the favorite and Africander. They ran this way for a mile, where Short Hose and Africander moved by Gunfire and closed up on Ostrich. They did not get to the latter, however, until they reached the far turn, where Short Hose moved to the front. Africander and Gunfire closed. Gunfire then drew clear of Africander and went on after Short Hose, but could not catch him, the latter winning easily by a length and a half. Africander was iwenty lengths away.

Proceeds led the field to the head of the stretch, where Melly Brant and Carbuncle closed strong; Carbuncle beating the odds on favorite Melly Brant in a driving finish by one length, with Greencrest third half a length
